

Guidance for Grown-Ups

December 2006

Attachment for Activity One: Answers to Your Questions

Example Modes of Communication

1. Talking in person
2. Whispering
3. Payphone
4. Cell phone
5. Loudspeaker announcement
6. Calling a radio show
7. Blogs
8. Comments on blogs
9. School newspaper
10. MySpace
11. Text messages
12. Instant messages
13. Voice mail messages
14. Passing notes
15. Snail mail
16. Chat rooms
17. Listservs
18. Webpage
19. Webpage with password
20. Facebook

Scenarios of Teen Communication

1. Telling someone you have a crush on him/her.
2. Giving the answer to a problem in math class.
3. Giving a friend directions to your house so you can go out together.
4. Praying before a meal.
5. Telling one friend why you're mad at another friend.
6. Competing in a debate for the debate team.
7. Signing a petition.
8. Forwarding a funny joke on email.
9. Your report card.
10. Asking someone out.
11. Voting in an election.
12. Making a list of your favorite TV shows.
13. Text-messaging a boy you met at the mall last week.
14. Ordering food at a drive-thru.
15. Writing an article for Teen Voices.
16. Creating a poster board display for the science fair.
17. Hanging a picture in your locker.
18. Wearing a t-shirt with the name of your favorite band.
19. Buying something online.
20. Talking to a doctor.